

Lots of opportunities to support our local historical societies, museums and art community this month.

Historical Society of Newburgh Bay and the Highlands

The Nemethy Family of Newburgh: 3 Generations of Art

Opening Reception: Saturday, September 15th from 3-6pm @ the David Crawford House

The exhibit features paintings from the late Hudson Valley artist Albert Szatmar Nemethy, his children and grandchildren. Hungarian artist Albert Szatmar Nemethy moved his family to the United States in 1951 and chose Newburgh as the city where he would continue his painting and raise a family. His six children, Julian, Georgina, Kristina, Albert George and Veronika, are all talented artists inspired by the beauty and rich history of the Hudson Valley.

Paintings by Albert Szatmar Nemethy will be on display at the Historical Society's David Crawford House, 189 Montgomery Street, Newburgh, through December 9th. Artwork by the other family members will be on display in the Ritz Theater Lobby, 107 Broadway, Newburgh, through November 25th. Visit www.newburghhistoricalsociety.com or call 845-561-2585

Lecture about 1870's Mechanical Clock
Program: Sunday, September 16th, 3pm @ Newburgh Heritage Center

In the tower of Ebenezer Baptist Church is a national treasure, a beautiful 1870's mechanical clock that is the last of its kind still at work. James Storrow, who helped restore this old masterpiece will describe that process with detailed illustrations. The program will be held at the Newburgh Heritage Center/Old Courthouse 123 Grand Street.

Hudson River Maritime Museum and Clearwater Barnraising

Saturday, Sept. 15

Join us to observe this old-fashioned Amish-style barn raising of the new post-and-beam, Kingston Home Port and Education Center, a joint building project between the Hudson River Maritime Museum and the Hudson River Sloop Clearwater. Members of the Timber Framers Guild will be on hand starting at 5:00am to begin assembly of the frame. Working throughout the day, a secondary construction crew will assist with other vital parts of the structure such as bents, floor joists, purlins, diagonal braces, and posts. The general public is welcome to observe these professionals at work. Festivities begin at 2pm. Visit hrmm.org, Call 845-338-0071
